

GREAT BRITAIN CAN- NOT CONTROL LEAGUE WITHOUT U.S. CONSENT

President Says Six Votes by Great Britain and Dependencies, Only Equal One American Vote

President Speaks to Audience of 15,000 in San Francisco, Breaking Record

BY HUGH BAILLEE.
(United Press Staff Correspondent.)

San Francisco, Sept. 18.—After one of the most riotous greetings he has received President Wilson today plans to go to Oakland to speak in favor of treaty ratification.

All records of the President's tour were broken yesterday when he spoke to an audience estimated at fourteen thousand by the police. They cheered for about 15 minutes and order was difficult to restore.

The President made public the following questions asked by a San Francisco association for the league of nations and his answers thereto:

1.—Are you certain of the underlying consideration which dictated an awarding of six votes to the British Empire in the assembly and is it true that Great Britain will out vote us in the league and therefore control the league action.

Answer.—The consideration which led to the assignment of six votes to the self governing portions of Great Britain was that they are autonomous self governing states, and have a policy in all foreign affairs independent of the control of the British government, and in many respects different from it, but it is not true that the British Empire can outvote us in the league, and therefore control action of the league, because in every matter, no action can be taken without the concurrence of a united vote of the representatives of all the states, the affirmative vote of the United States is necessary and equivalent to the united vote of the representatives of the several parts of Great Britain. The united vote of the several parts of the British Empire can not, he said, overcome the vote of the United States.

London, Sept. 18.—The Cork Examiner, the only newspaper in Ireland to print a page advertisement of the Sinn Fein loan has been suppressed by British authorities. Troops occupied the plant.

"French Leave."
This expression arose in the early part of the eighteenth century, through certain guests, in the salons of France, not aware of the higher acts of courtesy, leaving without saying good-by to the host or hostess. The practice spread to society in this country. Therefore, if a man left without saying good-by to his host, it was said he took "French leave."

Additional Evidence Against Packers Is Presented

(By United Press)

Chicago, Sept. 18.—Additional evidence in the government's attempt to secure indictments of the five big Chicago packers for alleged violation of the anti-trust law, today was presented to the federal grand jury here by Isadore Kresel, special prosecutor of the attorney general's office.

Henry Veeder, attorney for Swift & Co., it was intimated, would be placed on the stand today.

Packers Worked Together
Chicago, Ill., Sept. 18.—Letters from packers coaching their witnesses to appear before the Federal Trade commission were presented to the federal grand jury today.

Isadore Kresel, head of the government legal staff, endeavored to obtain indictment of the five packers, said other evidence was intended to show the big concerns worked together for common purposes.

Bonus Bill Conference

(By United Press)
St. Paul, Sept. 18.—The Senate refused today to adopt the conference report on the soldiers' bonus bill and as a result it will now be referred to another conference committee of both houses. The senate amendment which permits a soldier to collect both the bonus and a tuition of $200 was stricken out, following a lengthy debate which occupied most of the morning after the senate rejected it by a vote of 31 to 42.

Disbar Cary
The senate finance committee, which has been investigating the charges against F. Cary, judge advocate general of the Minnesota Motor Corps, will report its findings late today. It is understood that the committee will recommend to the state bar association that action be taken for disbarring Cary from practicing law in Minnesota.

Camden Citizens Wreck Street Cars

(By United Press)
Camden, N. J., Sept. 18.—Fourteen hundred trolley men operating cars of the public service corporation in the Camden district, were being sworn in as deputies as fast as the operation of the cars resumed service on the lines in the south division, after a suspension of thirty hours. Suspension became necessary after citizens had wrecked several cars protesting against increased fares. Every trolley man was furnished with revolvers.

Poindexter Denounces Police Organizations

(By United Press)
Pittsburgh, Sept. 18.—Naturalization of railroads and organization of police departments—movements fostered by organized labor—are a menace to the constitution and its success in locating a situation were similar to the chaos in Russia. This denunciation was made in an address by Senator Poindexter here last night. He also scored the league of nations.

Gompers Will Not Go to Pittsburgh

(By United Press)
Washington, Sept. 18.—Samuel Gompers again today emphatically declared he would not go to Pittsburgh and refused to discuss the threatened steel strike.

Glenn E. Plumb, attorney for the railroad brotherhoods and author of the "Plumb plan" for nationalization of the railroads, is fifty years old and is a graduate of Oberlin college and Harvard Law school.

Mine Workers Oppose Radical Organizations

Vote Down Resolution Endorsing One Big Union for all Workers

Cleveland, Ohio, Sept. 18.—(United Press)—The United States mine workers of America convention stood squarely against all radical organizations of workers.

A resolution calling for an endorsement of the one big union idea was defeated. This action followed the defeat of the proposal to have the mine organization withdraw from the American Federation of Labor.

The delegates from Washoe, Mont., sponsored the one big union resolution. The measure of the delegates who favored the formation of the one big union of working men and women of the United States demands five days a week, six hours a day, employment of all persons physically able to work, and old age pension for those unable to work.

Pittsburgh, Pa., Sept. 18.—The morning conference of twenty-four international presidents of steel workers adjourned at 1:30 with the delegates still standing for strike. Chairman Fitzpatrick declared there was nothing further to announce and that the conference would be resumed this afternoon at 2:30.

Deaths Now Estimated From 3 to Six Hundred

Cold Rain Now Adds to the Misery Caused by the Tropical Hurricane

Corpus Christi, Sept. 18.—(United Press)—The death toll of Sunday's tidal wave and hurricane today was estimated all the way from three hundred to six hundred and four.

Reports from Aransas Pass estimated the dead there at three hundred and fifty, but this statement could not be confirmed. Earlier reports had placed the number of dead at not more than thirty.

A chilling, driving rain continuing for 36 hours added much to the intense misery prevailing.

Supplies Urgently Needed

Aransas Pass, Texas, Sept. 18.—More than three thousand refugees have been crowded into this village which has a population of three thousand. Supplies are low and suffering acute. House facilities are inadequate. Clothing and blankets are needed at once. Railroads have been washed away and heavy rains have rendered traveling almost impossible.

Port Aransas, on the northeast end of Mustang is demolished. Many of its inhabitants literally drifted into this village on the crest of the tidal wave.

BANDITS STEAL $75,000 IN SILVER

(By United Press)
Quebec City, Quebec, Sept. 18.—Several parties today scoured the district out of Montmany fifty miles southeast of here in an effort to find fifty bandits who stole $75,000 in silver from a mail car of the Ocean Limited which left Montreal last night enroute for Halifax.

Steel Workers Make Plans for Strike

BY FRED S. FERGUSON.
(United Press Staff Correspondent.)

Pittsburgh, Pa., Sept. 18.—"The men are going to strike. I cannot see anything now that will stop them" was the statement of John Fitzpatrick, chairman of the steel mens committee, as the heads of twenty four unions went into conference here today.

The meeting today he said was not to talk whether there should be a strike, but its purpose is to lay out a program and establish details for the strike.

Treaty Opponents Well Received

Senator Hiram Johnson Says the President Wants to Put World in Straight Jacket

(By United Press)
Lincoln, Neb., Sept. 18.—Senator Hiram Johnson following an enthusiastic reception in Lincoln plans today to carry his fight against the treaty into the northwest leaving for Duluth where he will speak Friday. He will speak Saturday night in Minneapolis. Despite a heavy rain last night he had an audience of four thousand.

"President Wilson in an attempt to have the United States ratify the league of nations assumes to put the world in a straight jacket wherein there could be no room for progress or betterment," Johnson declared.

He said the President is seeking to have the senators approve of the league that is higher than the constitution and substitute internationalism for Americanism.

(By United Press)

Eau Claire, Wis., Sept. 18.—Three men in a touring car broke into the store of the Moline Clothing company at Baldwin, Wis., at 3:30 this morning loading nearly $5,000 worth of men's clothing into the machine and whisked away. The St. Croix county sheriff staged a gun battle with them near Hudson but apparently no one was hurt.

Congress Will To-Day Formally Thank Army

For the Great Victory Actuated in World War—Joint Session Held for this Purpose

(By United Press)

Washington, Sept. 18.—Congress today will formally extend to General Pershing and the men whom he led to victory, the thanks of the American people.

General Pershing was to appear before a joint session of house and senate at 2 o'clock this afternoon. The speakers will be Gillette, Senator Cummins, president pro-tem of the senate, and Champ Clark, an old member from Pershing's native state, Missouri, who will speak the formal words of welcome. The ceremony today will end America's formal welcome to Pershing. Tomorrow he will get back to work on the A. E. F. records, when he appears before the congressional committee, and for a financial report for the war department.

Pershing Won War.

Washington, Sept. 18.—Congress told the world today who won the war, "Black Jack" Pershing.

The reception which was given the returned head of the A. E. F., broke all records for enthusiasm.

Senator Cummins, representing Vice-President Marshall, who could not be present said: "The message I have the honor to present is not a greeting alone but an earnest welcome and hearty congratulations on your return to your native land."

Representative Gillett welcomed Pershing on behalf of the house, declaring that he typified the spirit of the American army.

Governor, State Auditor and State Treasurer to Compose State Board of Relief

St. Paul, Sept. 18.—Action to prevent forest fires and floods and to provide relief when such disasters occur was taken today by the house. The state board of relief is to be composed of the governor, state auditor and treasurer.

The bill was introduced by Representative Wicker of Kasson and amended by the appropriation committee and was passed by a vote of 98 to 1. Rep. Warner of Aitkin cast the only dissenting vote.

The bill provides for a fund of $1,000,000 to be raised by the issue of certificates of indebtedness. This fund will be raised when necessities arise. The money will be expended under direction of the state forestry department for removal of fire hazards wherever the state board may see fit. $50,000 will be immediately available if fire conditions necessitate it.

TONNAGE TAX BILL PASSES SENATE

Measures, After Approval of Changes, Goes to Governor; Outcome in Doubt

St. Paul, Sept. 17.—The Bendixen tonnage tax bill, bitterly opposed by Duluth and northern Minnesota delegations as dangerous to the prosperity of the iron ranges and its people, passed the senate tonight by a vote of 38 to 28—four votes more than the necessary constitutional majority of 34. The bill, which levies a 5 per cent tax on iron ore, went through the house last week and was approved by the senate at 6:30 o'clock tonight.

Roll Call Is Taken.

The vote stood thus on roll call.
Ayes: Anderson of Freeborn; Baldwin of Becker; Benson of Nicollet; Blomgren of Isanti; Bonniwell of McLeod; Carley of Wabasha; Cashel of Nobles; Cliff of Big Stone; Cumming of Polk; Devold of Hennepin; Gandrud of Kandiyohi; Gillam of Cottonwood; Gjerset of Chippewa; Gooding of Olmstead; Hall of Lyon; Hamer of Mille Lacs; Hegnes of Marshall; Hopp of Fillmore; Jackson of Ramsey; Johnson of Meeker; Kuntz of Carver; Lee of Pope; Lindsey of Murray; Looman of Stearns; Madigan of Wright; Millett of Dakota; Naplin of Pennington; Nolan of Mower; Orr of Ramsey; Peterson of Clay; Rask of Steele; Rockne of Goodhue; Romberg of Brown; Sageng of Ottertail; Schmechel of Renneville; Stepan of Todd; Ward of Martin; Wold of Norman—38.

Nays: Adams, Ribenack, Bessette, Erickson and Boylan of St. Louis; Brooks, Fowler, Callahan, Coleman, Dwyer, Palmer and Gullford of Hennepin; Handlan, Van Hoven, Doney and Conroy of Ramsey; Nord of Koochiching; Cosgrove of LeSueur; Kingsbury of Winona; Larson of Pine; McGarry of Cass; Putnam of Faribault; Reed of Rice; Sullivan of Washington; Sullivan of Stearns; Swanson of Crow Wing; Vibert of Carlton; Widdle of Blue Earth—28.

One Brought From Hospital

Turnham of Hennepin was the one absentee. He was ill. Senator Wold was brought from a hospital and sat in the lobby during the last hour of debate. When the roll call began, he came slowly in to his seat, voted "aye" and then his physician again took him in charge.

U. C. IS FIGHTING UNION OF POLICE

EFFORT TO KEEP WASHINGTON'S FORCE OUT OF THE A. F. OF L. REACHES THE COURTS.

SAME CONDITION IN BOSTON

Other Cities Deeply Interested in Outcome of the Controversy, as Their Police Are Likely to Affiliate With Labor Bodies.

By EDWARD B. CLARK.

Washington.—The police force of the capital of the United States has affiliated itself with the American Federation of Labor. The commissioners of the District of Columbia have ordered the policemen to renounce the affiliation under penalty of dismissal from the department.

In the city of Boston the same condition of affairs exists, for the police force of that town have declared their intention of affiliating with the labor organization, while Police Commissioner Curtiss is opposed to such action and has taken a course similar to that taken by the District of Columbia commissioners.

Washington is watching the contest with the deepest interest. It is said by some of the government officials that upon the outcome here will depend the outcome in many of the large cities of the country, for it is believed to be the intention of many of the police bodies to affiliate themselves with labor bodies provided they win their cases in Washington and in Boston. Should they win their case in the capital of the country, it is felt by government officials that they are certain to win it in the other cities.

The commissioners of the District of Columbia, who are opposed to the unionization of the police force, admit that the patrolmen, sergeants, lieutenants and captains here are underpaid. They say, however, that additional wages should be secured by a direct appeal to congress, which governs the District of Columbia as a sort of a great city council, and should not be obtained through efforts following an affiliation with a labor body.

Argument Against Unionizing.
The argument against the unionizing of the police force in Washington is that in case there should be trouble between employers and employees in this city, as a result of differences with labor unions, the policemen necessarily would have to take sides with their fellow unionists and, therefore, they could not show impartiality in attempts to uphold the law. This is the one great argument, and it is being used in Boston as well as in this town.

The commissioners of the district are sympathetic with union labor, but they have been moved to their position apparently by the argument which has been adduced. The case now has gone into court, and the police have been given a temporary order restraining the commissioners from interfering with their present arrangement with the great labor organization. Of course this is only the beginning of the legal battle.

Congress probably could settle this thing out of hand, if it desired, by making an appropriation for increased pay for the members of the police force in order that they might meet the advanced price of living. The wages of the members of the force have not been advanced, as have other wages. Many of the men are absolutely unable to make both ends meet. An effort is being made today to get congress to give authority for the increased wages. Congress, however, is, and has been for years, rather at odds with the authorities of the District of Columbia, and to some extent with the citizens thereof.

Congress and District Disagree.

Congress is always saying that the people of the District of Columbia are asking too much, while the District of Columbia people always are saying that congress won't yield half enough. This one particular thing, however, of payment of wages of the police force is something which is aloof from the general situation, and it may be that congress will act. The sharp, outstanding thing is that if the policemen here win their contention, the feeling is among officers that the police elsewhere will win theirs, and that all the municipal protective bodies in the United States soon will become out-and-out union organizations. It is for this reason that the outcome of the case in the capital will be watched with the deepest interest in all the other cities in the United States.

Washington has been disturbed for some little time by stories to the effect that if the police are dismissed from their positions because of affiliation with a labor organization the guardianship of the city will be turned over to the regular army and that sentinels will be walking police beats in this town, thus giving the capital of the country the appearance of an armed camp.

Congress already is giving consideration to the matter in hand, but it has made no definite move to show what it intends to do. It is possible, of course, that even if the requested advance in pay be granted by the lawmakers, the police will still insist upon maintaining their affiliation with the labor organization. If this shall happen, the capital of the country certainly will be, in a way, in straits, for it is known to be the intention of the district commissioners to maintain their position in the matter to the end.

Natural Enemies of Mosquito.

Dr. L. O. Howard, chief of the United States bureau of entomology, writing on his favorite theme, the mosquito, in a recent bulletin reviews the subject of the natural enemies of this insect. Among fish, he mentions first the common goldfish and silverfish, which destroy mosquito larvae and should be put in artificial ponds. Top-minnows are great feeders on mosquito larvae, and certain species introduced from Texas and Hawaii have proved their value, while a small top-minnow of the genus Girardinus, known in Barbados as "millions," has been used successfully in other West Indian islands. Many predatory aquatic insects feed on mosquito larvae. Certain birds prey upon the adults, and bats also eat them. Many plants are popularly believed to keep away mosquitoes, among them being several species of eucalyptus, the castor oil plant, the chinaberry tree, etc. Scientific observations have not confirmed the popular idea on this subject.—Scientific American.

Swift Handling of Troops.

The Canadian national railways recently broke a speed record in the transportation of troops from one ship. The troopship Olympic docked at six o'clock in the evening, with 4,000 returned soldiers aboard. Eleven special trains were made up to take the soldiers to demobilization points inland. The first of these specials got under way at 7:45 o'clock. The other trains followed at average intervals of 18 minutes. Within three hours all the soldiers were on their way for the interior. The troops averaged 445 men to a train and it took 150 cars to handle them.

BLACKS AND BROWNS AGAIN

Sober Colors Just Now Showing a Revival of Popularity Hard to Account for.

Why the recent vogue for black evening frocks?

At the present time there is just the right setting for colors so brilliant and colorful—and gaudy, if you will—as to suit the most primitive of us. Fact is, dark colors were put on the shelf when the armistice was signed and there was a striking showing of colors of brilliant hue.

But these new black frocks that a good many smart women are getting are rather different. They are of lace and they are sometimes trimmed with brilliant ribbon or silk sashes. They are as diaphanous and as sprightly as the wing of a dusky butterfly. Still they are black, and it does seem strange that one should want to wear black when peace has come and summer is here.

But even odder is the persistence of the brown frock. This made its appearance just before the end of the war, and it was extremely smart, but with the craze for bright Victory colors it went into short retirement, only to blossom forth more interesting than ever. And this is even stranger because now that it is summer one would think that brown, which is warm, if any color ever was, would have no place in our wardrobes. But somehow it is true that the brown frock even in the evening has a certain distinguished appearance that is hard to account for.

Sometimes it is a golden brown that goes very well with metallic gold and bronze tissue in evening gowns, and then sometimes it is more of a red-brown. And by the way there is an accent on that "e," giving to the word three syllables, a fact that does not seem to be recognized by all who speak of the color.

"Saint of Belgium" and Cardinal Gibbons

Cardinals Mercier and Gibbons

Cardinal Mercier the "Saint of Belgium," had two missions to perform when he came to America. One was to tell America how much Belgium appreciated her aid during the war.

The other was to visit the venerable Cardinal Gibbons. The photograph was taken while the Belgian prelate was in Baltimore, the day after he landed in America.

JAEGER-MARTIN

Wedding of Miss Agnes Jaeger of Brainerd to Chester E. Martin

(Grand Meadow Record)

The people of this vicinity will be interested to learn of the marriage on Thursday of last week of Chester E. Martin and Miss Agnes Jaeger. This pleasing nuptial event took place at the home of the bride's parents at Brainerd, Minn., in the presence of only the immediate relatives of the contracting parties. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Lynn U. Martin of Glenwood and Miss Izella Martin of this place. Following a wedding dinner Mr. and Mrs. Martin, together with Lynn Martin and wife and Miss Izella Martin, motored to Glenwood where they visited for several days. From there the happy couple went to Minneapolis and thence to Duluth. After a short stay in that city they will return to Grand Meadow.

Neither the bride nor groom need any introduction to the people of Grand Meadow and vicinity. "Chet" Martin has been reared in this community and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Martin. For many years he has been active in business circles in Grand Meadow. A partner in the firm of Martin & Schroeder, he has been a factor in the building up of the extensive business that firm enjoys in this part of Minnesota. He is one of the most substantial and progressive of our business men and is held in high regard by all. Miss Jaeger, until a few months ago, was employed as stenographer and office assistant in the Martin & Schroeder establishment. She is a highly accomplished young lady and made friends by the score during her residence here.

The Record joins with a host of friends in extending the heartiest congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Martin.

LATE IDEAS IN MILLINERY

Among Them Is a Pretty Hat of Versailles Blue—Ostrich Trimming Used Effectively.

Many novelties are included in the lines of high-priced millinery that are being shown in New York for the fall season. One novel hat in Versailles blue is a rather small shape with the brim folded back on four sides, the up-turned faces of which are trimmed with beautiful beading. At each corner is a fancy bit of coque in a brilliant shade of blue and orange. Interlacing in a basket weave effect is used in many interesting ways in other hats displayed. Ribbons are much used for this purpose, as are bias folds of velvet. One model of this type is a high-front turban with the top interlaced in brown and orange. Rows of ostrich trimming cover the front and give a novel effect. Another novelty seen is a "tam" of black and terra cotta dvelty.

Bead Embroidery.

Pearl bead embroidery is in high favor in France. Gray and black pearls are embroidered on the lace that trims a smart evening gown of black chiffon over white satin, and a charming little day dress of old blue crepe de chine has insets on the sleeves and in the middle of the blouse made of black pearl beads embroidered on white background.

POOR BUSINESS

Two Bemidji papers are giving away automobiles in the desperate effort to lasso a few new subscribers. Poor business. If the papers would spend a part of the money they are turning over to outside profiteers, in making up their news columns, they would add to their list in a much more satisfactory way. The Journal-Press has more than doubled its subscribers in the past two years, without even having a solicitor at work. The increase has come thru our readers who have been telling their neighbors that the Journal-Press gives them the reliable news, and does it first. Subscribers who come in because they want the paper are the kind who will stay, so long as the paper is what it ought to be, and that is the kind we want. The Journal-Press appreciates the help of its thousands of kind readers, and its highest ambition is to be worthy of their confidence and support.—St. Cloud Journal-Press.

BALANCE OF POWER

The trouble about England's six votes to America's one really started in the British colonies. The English do not worry much about representation at the league council. They care very little, when the truth is told, about the league at all.

It was a South African who made the stipulation. The British colonies are not suspicious of America so much as they are of England. And they do not mean to be bound by England's vote any more than they do by America's. They want votes of their own. It is even possible that they will be found voting with America instead of with England at the council, for the colonies have no intention of being bound by a bolshevik vote.—Bemidji Daily Pioneer.

3,000,000 Acres in Corn

St. Paul, Sept. 18—Minnesota should have 3,000,000 acres of corn next year for feeding purposes and prepare for a considerable increase each year according to Prof. Andrew Boss, agronomist of the University of Minnesota.

At present Minnesota grows from 2,500,000 to 2,750,000 acres of corn annually. In years past it has been necessary to import feeds for livestock when crops were short or improperly cared for.

To eliminate the possibility of neglecting the corn crop as a necessary feed in the state, the university farm this week is winding up a campaign for immediate selection of seed corn for planting next year.

"The farmer should go into the field while the corn is still standing and make his selection from strong, healthy plants," said Prof. Boss. "After the corn is taken in the farmer can't tell where the seed corn comes from that he gets. Field selection is the proper method. It will save much trouble."

"A yellow or white dent corn that will cure right in the farmer's own locality, should be selected," he said. "In the northern parts of the state flint corn is used to some extent but the most popular are Minnesota No. 13 and 23. In the southern third of the state Minnesota No. 13, Silver King or Rustler are the most popular."

Women Organizing

Fargo, N. D., Sept. 18—Mrs. Agnes Rex, Grand Forks, president of the North Dakota Association of Professional and Business Women and vice president of the national organization today appealed to every woman in the state to expedite the work of organizing North Dakota.

It is hoped to have an organization in every town of size, but women located in vicinities where there is no society can become individual members. Mrs. Rex has established headquarters here to receive communications.

Minimum Wage Laws

Red Wing, Minn., Sept. 18—Validity of the new minimum wage regulations of the Minnesota Minimum Wage Commission was to be decided here today. The commission this afternoon was to show cause in the Goodhue county court why its regulations should not be restrained temporarily, from operating against companies employing women and minors.

The G. O. Miller Telephone Company operating in this county brought suit for injunction to restrain the commission from enforcing its orders. The suit was brought on the ground that the regulations were made without authority, mainly on the ground that fixing a forty-eight hour week was made arbitrarily and that wages were fixed without proper investigation of living conditions.

Find No Room for Poor St. George

(By United Press)

London (By Mail)—Famous Britishers will have to hurry up and die if they want to be buried in the national Valhalla, Westminster Abbey. There is absolutely only room for six more, and they will have to be cremated first, according to Rev. Canon R. H. Charles, who is in charge of abbey graves and interments.

The suggestion came from Australia, that the abbey should be the last resting-place of a casket of bones alleged to be those of England's patron saint, St. George of Cappadocia, which were excavated by Australian troops in Palestine, finds little favor

Another Secret Aspiration!

DANTE wanted to be a painter. Chopin tried to write poetry. Almost every novelist wants to be a playwright and vice versa. And here we find that in his heart of hearts Charles Ray, stellar light of the screen, has ambitions as a short story writer. What's more, he's a clever writer, just as he is an accomplished linguist and a deep student of electrical phenomena. In a quiet corner of the studio late directors will usually discover their missing star hammering on the working girl's typewriter and turning out such good stuff that it seems an imposition to drag him off to the waiting cameras. The latest intrusion upon his literary work has been his brilliant Paramount picture, "Hay Foot, Straw Foot."

with Canon Charles. "I don't care 'tuppence' about his bones," he declared emphatically. "Just now I am more concerned about the remains of England, if the labor troubles don't cease."

"Anyway, there is only room for the remains of six more famous people in the abbey. I am trying to secure additional ground for interments; there are some old houses behind one of our Norman walls which will have to come down some day. I want the space reserved for the interment of the famous men. There are so many great men, nowadays, and there will be so many in the years to come, that space for six seems inadequate. If we get this space we might have room for St. George."

Janitors Pay Higher Than the Professors

(By United Press)

New York, Sept. 18—College professors are worse paid than janitors and scrubwomen in the same institutions, charges Gardner B. Perry of Albany, a Harvard graduate who is chairman of the Eastern New York endowment committee to raise funds for Harvard University. The university wants $11,000,000.

"So long as the janitors of our college halls and the scrubwomen of the libraries get larger salaries than professors, just so long shall we be in danger of seeing our universities become second rate schools of advanced education," he said.

"The remedy for this condition is not lowering the pay of the janitors or scrubwomen, but raising those of our teachers."

New Heat-Resisting Stone

The heat-resisting building stone of Charles Ingvaldsen, a Norwegian, is made by mixing ground mica with just enough clay or like binder to form a coherent mass. The mixture may be shaped into blocks, plates or other forms of any size, and is fired at a temperature just high enough to fuse the mica. The stone has essentially the same properties as natural mica. For withstanding very high temperatures, equal parts of mica and quartz are used with the binder, and this mixture is fired at a heat sufficient to fuse the quartz. This stone is claimed to be not only a very refractory and durable material but to offer other desirable qualities, such as effective electric insulation.

Violent Deaths in India.

Snake bites caused 25,918 deaths in British India in 1917, nearly 300 more than in 1916. There were 2,170 persons killed by wild animals, 102 less than in 1916. Tigers got 1,009; leopards, 339; wolves and bears, 289; elephants and hyenas, 89. Of the 456 set down to "other animals," 89 are assigned to pigs and 199 to crocodiles.

BEAUTY SECRETS!

Where she gets her good looks, her healthy skin, her pink cheeks, is known to every one, because it is apparent that it is not due to cosmetics, paint and powder. But the true womanly beauty comes from good health, and this good health is a woman's secret.

Health comes with good physical machinery and good spirits, an active digestion. A body free from pains and aches comes with a tonic known for over fifty years as the best "temperance" tonic and nerve for woman—namely, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It can be obtained in any drug store in liquid or tablet form, or send 10c to Dr. Pierce Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

Cleansing of the intestinal tract is important. Take castor oil or select a vegetable pill. Such a one is composed of May-apple, leaves of aloe, root of jalap, and made into tiny sugar-coated pellets, to be had at every drug store as Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.

Itual and artistic triumphs of my life."

"Common Clay," which is one of the notable screen productions of the year, is in seven reels and will be shown at the Best theatre on Monday and Tuesday. It is many times more vivid, gripping and convincing than the stage presentation. It is a woman's play, with a theme that commands the interest of all mankind.

AMUSEMENTS

At the Best Tomorrow

If you wish to know how any of the mystifying sleight-of-hand tricks are done, just ask Charles Ray, star of Thomas H. Ince's latest photoplay, "Hay Foot, Straw Foot," which comes to the Best theatre tomorrow.

In this picture Mr. Ray appears as an entertainer at an army camp theatre under the stage name of Abdul ben Mazzaza who had to perform all kinds of illusions. To get into the part Mr. Ray had to take a course in legerdemain and now says he is next to all the tricks that make the wise heads in the usual audience scratch their ears.

During the filming of the production Mr. Ray had great sport at the Thomas H. Ince studio mystifying everyone on the lot with the stunts he had learned. When the scene was finally shot, however, he had to give them all away for the story requires him to bungle all his tricks. Doris Lee is his leading woman.

At the Best Monday and Tuesday

Ellen O'Grady, a deputy commissioner of Police, New York city, after seeing a private showing of "Common Clay," A. H. Wood's screen presentation of the Harvard prize play, had something to say of the sex problem of stage, screen and story. She is one of the foremost women of the world in her line of service and observation; and the regulation of the Metropolitan Police Department show that she has "supervision of all conditions; relating to white slave traffic; crimes and offenses affecting women and girls; social welfare and the protection of juveniles."

And so detailed are the things that intimately encompass "Common Clay," Cleves Kinkaid's masterpiece in which Jane Cowl appeared for an entire year in New York city; and the beautiful screen version in which Fannie Ward is said to have done the superb emotional work of her life. On the stage it was played in every city of the United States and Canada and the film version, if the reviews are a guide, will have even a wider success. It was at once booked by the Rivoli theatre, New York by Director Hugo Riesenfeld, who considered it a 100 per cent picture and human drama.

Commissioner O'Grady, to whom it seemed like a page from her own observations, was so impressed by it that squarely to meet all the moral problems of life, the Ten Commandments might be filmed.

"It is indeed a great ideal," exclaimed Miss Ward. "I think it would make a series with a universal appeal and add an enduring dignity to the screen. If anything that I have accomplished in my work in 'Common Clay' has moved you to this inspiration, I shall consider that I have scored one of the greatest spircepted, to begin Nov. 1st, in his new work. Mr. and Mrs. Cody will retain their home in Brainerd where they have lived for seven years and where they have many attachments of home and friends.

Mr. Cody was called to the pastorate of the First Baptist church of Detroit, Minn., and has been acting pastor there since June 1st and had expected to remove to that city, but has now resigned and will close his work in Detroit the last of October to take up his new position.

His field of operation will be chiefly in what is known as the Northwestern Baptist association and he will have supervision of the missionary work among all the English speaking Baptist churches in the territory from St. Cloud to International Falls and from Duluth to Fargo.

Rev. Cody is a citizen that Brainerd is glad to retain, for supplemented with his work for the church has been his interest in civic, in building up and improving a section of the north side in Taylor's addition, where he has induced many to shift from renters to home owners.

Amethyst Once Highly Prized.

On account of its fine color, play of light and capacity for polish, the amethyst once held a high rank as a decorative stone, perhaps next to the sapphire, but by reason of the discovery of large quantities in Brazil its popularity declined in Europe and consequently its commercial value declined in corresponding ratio.

Of all the quartz varieties the amethyst has been the most highly valued, and the most frequently used for the art of engraving. The deep shades are less brilliant and for this reason the artists of antiquity preferred the lighter shades. Consequently the ancient intagli occur almost invariably on the light-colored specimens so that engravings on the dark shade may be suspected as modern.

But some of the specimens of Egyptian, Etruscan and Roman engraving on amethysts are extant, among which may be mentioned the gem bearing the likeness of the Emperor Trajan, captured by Napoleon when he conquered Prussia in 1806; a bust of Antonia, daughter of Mark Antony; the head of a Syrian king, which is or was in the Pelsky collection, and a superb engraving of Diocletian, now in the national library in Paris.

Furniture Polish.

This is a polish used by a cabinet maker who learned the trade: One-half pint raw linseed oil, three tablespoonfuls turpentine, two tablespoonfuls alcohol, three tablespoonfuls vinegar. Shake well before using.

HEARS FROM HIS PARENTS IN GERMANY

Charles Volkl Receives Letter Which Left Bavaria in Germany on August 28th

THE PEOPLE ARE ON RATIONS

Tickets For Bread, Meat, Eggs, Etc. Allowed One Egg Per Person Every Two Weeks

Charles Volkl, an American citizen of Brainerd, has received what is believed locally to be the first letter from Germany since the embargo was lifted. It gave him the first news from his parents, three brothers and a sister received in three and a half years.

The letter dated Bavaria, August 28 arrived in Brainerd Sept. 17. Bavarians are still on rations, and tickets are needed to get a quota of bread, potatoes, meat, eggs, etc. All supplies are high in price. Each person is allowed an egg every two weeks.

Lard sells at 10 and 12 marks. An egg brings 30 to 50 pfennings. Meat is 6 to 9 marks a pound.

A brother in the war was severely wounded in Flanders on October 17, 1917. The family suffered privations of all kinds and conditions are still severe in Germany, wrote his mother.

FARMERS' CLUBS BUSY IN COUNTY

Farmers Near Outing and Emily Organize a Farmers' Booster Club

THE NISSWA COMMUNITY CLUB

60 Farmers Present at the Pelican Lake Farmers' Club Meeting

Tuesday the farmers in the vicinity of Outing and Emily organized themselves into a farmers' booster club. About fifty met in the Emily school house in the evening and had an enthusiastic meeting. County Agent E. G. Roth called the meeting to order and assisted in the organization, explaining the object of the farmers clubs, their weaknesses and possibilities. H. Dickerson was elected president, J. W. Taylor vice president and G. Lingwall secretary-treasurer of the new farmer club. Seventeen farmers families joined and paid their dues thus starting this farmers' club. The club intends to meet once a month in the afternoon at the homes of different members on the second Wednesday of each month. The next meeting which will be in October, is to be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Taylor.

The club after organizing, had a lively discussion on the question, "Is it Profitable for a Farmer to Raise Pure Bred Stock?"

More members are expecting to join at following meetings as this is a very progressive community and farmers here are alive to their agricultural betterment and home development. Plans are already being made by this club to buy a clover huller, threshing machine and silo filling machinery.

Nisswa Community Club.

Mr. and Mrs. John Schull entertained the farmers at their home for the regular monthly meeting, fifty being present.

Following the usual custom of eating a picnic dinner, President John Schull called the meeting to order and the business of the day was taken up. Plans were made to put up an exhibit at the fair.

The program opened by a song by the club, D. C. Henderson read the Nisswa Reporter, bringing local and foreign news up to the minute. Former County Agent Gaffke, who is now county agricultural agent of McHenry county, Illinois, spoke for a few minutes on "Farmers' Organization," and was followed by County Agent E. G. Roth, who spoke on "What the Farm Bureau Should Mean to a Farmer." Mr. Persson talked on "Farm Legislation," after which a general discussion took place in which all joined.

The meeting adjourned at 4 P. M. each feeling that they had spent an entertaining and beneficial day.

The Pelican Lake Farmers' Club held their monthly meeting at the home of Ira Johnston, 60 attending. After looking at Mr. Johnston's new barn and silo and visiting the different crops near the building, the club members enjoyed their picnic dinner and program which consisted chiefly in preparing for the booth exhibits at the fair.

The next meeting is to be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. McIntyre at Pelican Lake.

Photographer H. R. Griebel took the picture of the club after the meeting.

DULUTH PROGRAM OF N. M. D. A. IN NOV.

Committee in Charge Aims to Cover Wide Latitude of Subjects of Vital Interest

SPEAKERS AND THEIR TOPICS

Girls' and Boys' Potato Growing Contest to Encourage Young Gardeners and Farmers

A strong and comprehensive program for the annual convention of the Northern Minnesota Development Association, to be held at Duluth on Nov. 12-13 is being outlined by the committee, according to Secretary F. T. Lincoln of this city and will soon be ready for publication.

The committee aims to cover a wide latitude of subjects of vital interest and importance in the development of Northern Minnesota and to make the program one which will appeal to both men and women. Leaders and those specializing in different lines of community work as well as in agricultural development are being corresponded with, and invited to take part in the program.

Speakers and Subjects

Among those who are expected to participate in the program and the subjects they will discuss are the following: N. J. Holmberg, Commissioner of Agriculture, subject, "Minnesota Laws Relating to Agriculture"; A. D. Wilson, "How the Extension Department is Helping Agricultural Development"; Mary E. Stillwell, St. Louis County Home Demonstration Agent, "Potatoes as Food and Other Articles of Diet to Furnish a Balanced Ration"; Perry J. Holden, Educational Director of International Harvester Co. Chicago, "Reducing the Cost of Living by Use of Machinery"; Hale S. Tennant, U. S. Bureau of Markets, Washington, D. C. "Marketing of Potatoes in a Large Way"; N. A. Young, Supt. of St. Louis County Schools, "Boys' and Girls' Clubs as an Agency in Developing American Citizens"; Mrs. C. E. Spring, Duluth, "The Housewife as a Purchasing Agent"; A. J. Tolaas, State University Farm, report on "Seed Certification"; Prof. A. J. Alway, "Swamp Land Experiments"; Otto Bergh, Grand Rapids, report on work of North Central Experiment Station; N. J. Thompson, Duluth, report on N. E. Experiment Station. An exhibit of implements and machinery used in growing and handling potatoes as well as one of insecticides and fungicides used on potato plants will be another interesting and helpful feature of the big potato exposition.

Potato Growing Contest

One of the most interesting and successful activities of the Northern Minnesota Development Association is the Boys' and Girls' Potato-Growing contest, an annual event established some years ago with an aim to encourage the young gardeners and farmers of the northern part of the state in the successful cultivation of one of the most important crops of this section.

Prizes amounting to $300 in cash are awarded to the successful growers, decided at the annual meeting which will be held this year in November 12-13 at Duluth. The contests are conducted under the supervision of Professor T. A. Erickson, State Club Leader, of the University Extension Division and the following requirements and prizes have been announced recently by him.

Outline of Requirements and Prizes for Potato Growing Contest 1919

Age: 10 to 18 years, inclusive. Acreage: at least 1-8 acre. Varieties: The contest will be limited to eight standard varieties: Green Mountain, Rural New Yorker, Irish Cobbler, Early Ohio, Triumph, Burbank, Russet and King. The local or county club leader to local conditions. All boys and girls selecting the potato club project must grow the varieties selected for the community by the club leader.

Basin of Award:

1. Greatest yield.....40
2. Financial report, showing economy of production, value of potatoes considered at market price.....25
3. Exhibit of 50 potatoes.....20
4. Story, "How I Grew My Crop of Potatoes".....15

Each member must enroll not later than July 1, 1919 with the club leader or county agent who will send enrollments to the Agricultural Extension Division, University Farm, St. Paul, Minn.

Club members must fill out the regular report blanks carefully with pen and ink, and forward same to the State Leader or to the local leader, on or before December 1, 1919.

The boy from each county making the best record in the potato growing contest, providing he is fifteen years old or more, will receive free railway fare to and from the State Fair and membership in the Boys' Camp with all privileges of such membership, providing the enrollment in potato club work for the county ranks first or second compared with other projects.

The boys who win first in each of the four sections will receive a Solid Gold Club Medal. Every boy who finishes his project and reports will have his name on the Club Honor Roll.

Nearly every county fair offers special prizes for the potato club boys and girls. Every Club Member should try for them.

T. A. ERICKSON
State Club Leader.

Many Aspirants for the Office at Deerwood, O. C. Coffin Receives Appointment

DR. SMITH HEALTH OFFICER

Corn Crop Good, Farm of Louis Carlson at Hamlet Lake Showing Best Yield in Years

Deerwood, Minn., Sept. 16—There were six candidates for village marshal and the council at length settled matters by naming O. C. Coffin. The office also carries the duties of street commissioner.

Dr. B. A. Smith is the new board of health officer.

Mrs. C. J. Oberg entertained the Mission Friends Ladies' Aid at her home this afternoon.

Deerwood people motored to Aitkin and attended the county fair.

Louis Carlson of Hamlet Lake had a fine yield of corn.

A baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Will Pitt.

A. G. Whitney and family of St. Cloud motored to Deerwood and stopped at the Shannon Inn.

Miss Goldie Holmstrom of Brainerd is teaching school in Dist. No. 76.

Gust Oberg is visiting in Minneapolis.

Twenty-seven Deerwood young people are attending the Crosby-Ironton high school.

John Swanson will soon leave for Chicago where he will make his home with his son who is a dentist there.

HUN FEELING IS UNCHANGED

German Clergy Still Talk of Day of Triumph in Store for the Fatherland.

The Glasgow Herald prints from a special correspondent some interesting information regarding the views of the German churches on the peace treaty.

What, asked the writer, in the guidance offered by the churches at this crisis in the affairs of the nation? We are in no doubt as to its character. In the Kreuz Zeitung recently Doctor Conrad, one of the ex-kaiser's chaplains, wrote a homily on the attitude which religious men should adopt toward the peace which is being "dictated to Germany." He wrote: "Possess your souls and do not despair. God in his good time will turn our sorrows into joy. Is there a German man with the fear of God in his heart who does not realize that this humiliation is but for a time and that before long the drama of the new fashioning of the earth will begin again? When that time comes Germany will rise supreme from the fire of her trials. It was in 1870-71 that began it; that was the prelude; we are now at the close of the second act. The coming third act will give us our final place and God will be with us. All I can counsel is this: Be patient. Our hour is coming. Certainly, sign the peace, for this will give us the breathing time we require and also time for reflection."

In the Kirchen Anzeiger there is a sermon by Stadt-Pfarrer Brockhaus, headed "What is Now Our Duty?" The preacher after denouncing "the cruel and incredible terms" of the treaty, goes on: "There is a revenge which is holy and enables all those who nourish it in their hearts. We cannot sit down under the awful humiliation. But we must wait God's time. We must wait for him to deliver our course. He who led the German people from weakness to strength, he who once blessed our efforts in our world mission is punishing us now for our sins, but he has great work for us yet and he will see that we yet stand on the necks of our adversaries." All through these sermons dealing with the peace and the present situation generally the German clergy continuously exhort their flocks to be patient, to be steadfast during the days of tribulation. In a perfunctory sort of way they acknowledge that tribulation has come upon the people because of their sins and shortcomings, but the sins and shortcomings have nothing to do with the guilt of causing the war or with the inexcusable crimes committed by Germany in the four years of its duration.

Coats and Wraps that have won Winter's high esteem

With every woman agreeing—we can state this to be a greatly favored season for the Separate Coat. Novelty Pile Fabrics, Velours and Smart Coating are developed in long full length models with graceful lines that are brought in at the waist with narrow belts. The lavish use of Fur for trimmings is a distinguishing feature of many other Cloth Coats.

Nor are high prices prevalent in our department. All that is characteristic of the season is shown at most reasonable prices. There is a wide selection and we hope to acquaint you with it.

THEIR GREAT MOMENT GONE

Writer Has Little Expectation of Creative Ability Being Displayed by Returned Soldiers.

The spiritual point is this, writes John Galsworthy in Scribner's. In front of a man, in ordinary civilized existence there hovers ever that moment in the future when he expects to prove himself more of a man than he has yet proved himself. For these soldiers of the great carnage the moment of probation is already in the past. They have proved themselves as they will never have the chance to do again, and secretly they know it. One talks of their powers of heroism and sacrifice being wanted just as much in time of peace, but that cannot really be so, because peace times do not demand men's lives—which is the ultimate test—with every minute that passes. No, the great moment of their existence lies behind them, young though so many of them are. This makes them at once greater than us, yet in a way smaller, because they have lost the power and hope of expansion. They have lived their masterpiece already. Human nature is elastic and hope springs eternal, but a climax of experience and sensation cannot be repeated; I think these have reached and passed the uttermost climax, and in Europe they number millions.

This is a veritable portent, and I am glad that in America you will not have it to any great extent.

Now how does this affect the future? Roughly speaking it must, I think, have a diminishing effect on what I may call loosely—creative ability. People have often said to me: "We shall have great writings and paintings from these young men when they come back." We shall certainly have poignant expression of their experiences and sufferings, and the best books and paintings of the war itself are probably yet to come. But, taking the long view, I do not believe we shall have from them, in the end, as much creative art and literature as we should have had if they had not been through the war.

Will Go Back to Work in France.

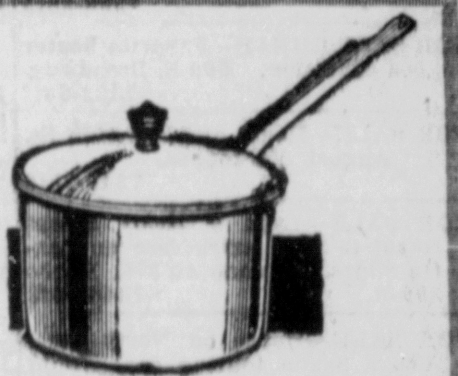

If Charles W. Bradlee, Jr., formerly a teacher of manual arts in Worcester academy, Worcester, Mass., hadn't been an obliging sort of gentleman, he wouldn't be carrying a shell splinter today under his right cheekbone, so cunningly lodged there that physicians hesitate to operate for fear of his face becoming paralyzed.

While a worker with the Foyer du Soldat in France, Bradlee consented August 7 to replace another worker on the front line at Lihery. The other welfare man was away on leave so Bradlee, with his knapsack filled with Y. M. C. A. supplies went up near the front line. At that time a jagged scar caused by a shell splinter was healing on his forehead. He had been working only a short period at Lihery when a Hun shell burst and he was given another moment of service. This time the sliver of a flying shell lodged in his cheek.

Bradlee learned to love the French and will return to Flanders to work among them in the devastated sections as a member of the International committee of the Y. M. C. A. He said that he feels he will be able to aid permanently wounded men in learning new occupations.

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE

Only Two Days More Fifth Day of Economy Demonstration

Tomorrow Mrs. Brekke a specially trained "Wear-Ever" Instructor will show how potatoes and apples can be baked on top of the stove in a "Wear-Ever" Aluminum Sauce Pan, thus saving the extra fuel that would be required to heat an oven.

She will demonstrate the "Wear-Ever" Fry Pan also.

The "Wear-Ever" Fry Pan stores up such a large amount of heat that potatoes or other foods can be fried to a golden brown thoroughly and quickly—with less fuel and grease than is required by the ordinary fry pan.

"Wear-Ever" Coupon

We will accept this Coupon and $1.75 for this "Wear-Ever" 6-quart Preserving Kettle which sells regularly at $2.45.

gas engineer, a grocer's assistant, as well as policemen, clerks and privates, have commanded companies and acted as adjutants.

These instances are not strange. They show possession of military instinct which only required the chance to be displayed.

Analyzing further, of course, it could be abundantly shown that some men, although given high rank, fell down lamentably when opportunity for work offered.

While technical education is essential, soldiers are born, not made.

It would be interesting to collate from our own records some of the many instances of American soldiers who rose from the ranks to commissions after a brief apprenticeship to the profession of arms.

Big Money for Billiard Champs

(By United Press)

New York, Sept. 17—Tournament to determine the national billiard and pocket billiard champions at America will take place this fall.

The tournament for the 18.2 balk-line billiard championship will open here Oct. 20 at the Astor Hotel. The entries will be limited to a field of six players with an entrance fee of $250. The games will be 400 point affairs. The first prize will be $2,500, second $1,750, third $1,250 and fourth $750. In addition the winner will draw an annual salary of $4,000 as long as he holds the title.

The three-cushion championship tournament will be held at the Moose auditorium, Cleveland, starting November 6th. It will be contested by ten players for prize money aggregating $4,500. To the winner goes $1,500 and an annual salary of $2,400, second prize is $1,250, third $1,000 and fourth $750.

The pocket billiard series will be held at the Parkway auditorium, Philadelphia, starting Nov. 1. Prize money runs the same as the other series with an annual salary of $2,400 to the winner.

The three champions decided in the tournament will then stage an eight week tourney for which they will receive $100 per week and up.

TIMELY HITTING AND SPLENDID WORK OF PITCHERS HAVE KEPT GIANTS IN FRONT

Some Leading Factors in Keeping Giants on Top.

The hard and timely hitting of the Giants and the work of two pitchers, Barnes and Benton, have been the leading factors in keeping the Giants in the front row of the pennant race thus far this season. The terrific batting of Young, Kauff and Barnes especially has been a big aid to the team in the flag fight. Young and Kauff are among the first five batters of the league and Barnes is close behind them. Doyle has also been playing a strong game, both at the bat and in the field. The problem which Manager McGraw has on his hands is that if these heavy hitters should fall off to any great extent the extra burden which would be thrown on the pitching staff would be so great that it is doubtful if the fingers would stand the pressure.

NO FOOTBALL AT BRAINERD HIGH

Brainerd high has no football this year, in fact it's had no team in line for the past three years. The war took all the husky high school boys and left no one to continue the game.

Brainerd high, however, shines in basketball and was a contender for the championship of the district in 1919. A good team will be put in this year. Former basketball players made their mark at the agricultural colleges in North Dakota and Minnesota, Reis shining in the Dakota's and Molstad at Minnesota's "Aggy."

FOOTBALL IN ST. CLOUD

Edward Moog Elected Captain of 1919 Team, Technical High School

(St. Cloud Journal Press)
Edward Moog, captain of the 1919 football team of the Technical High school, was chosen as president of the high school athletic association.

Edward Milne, captain elect of the 1920 basketball team was chosen as vice president. Miss Jeanette Fowler was selected as secretary and John Cooper was selected as manager.

The board of control consists of a student member, Alphonse Barrett, and an alumni member, Erving Carlson, with members of the faculty.

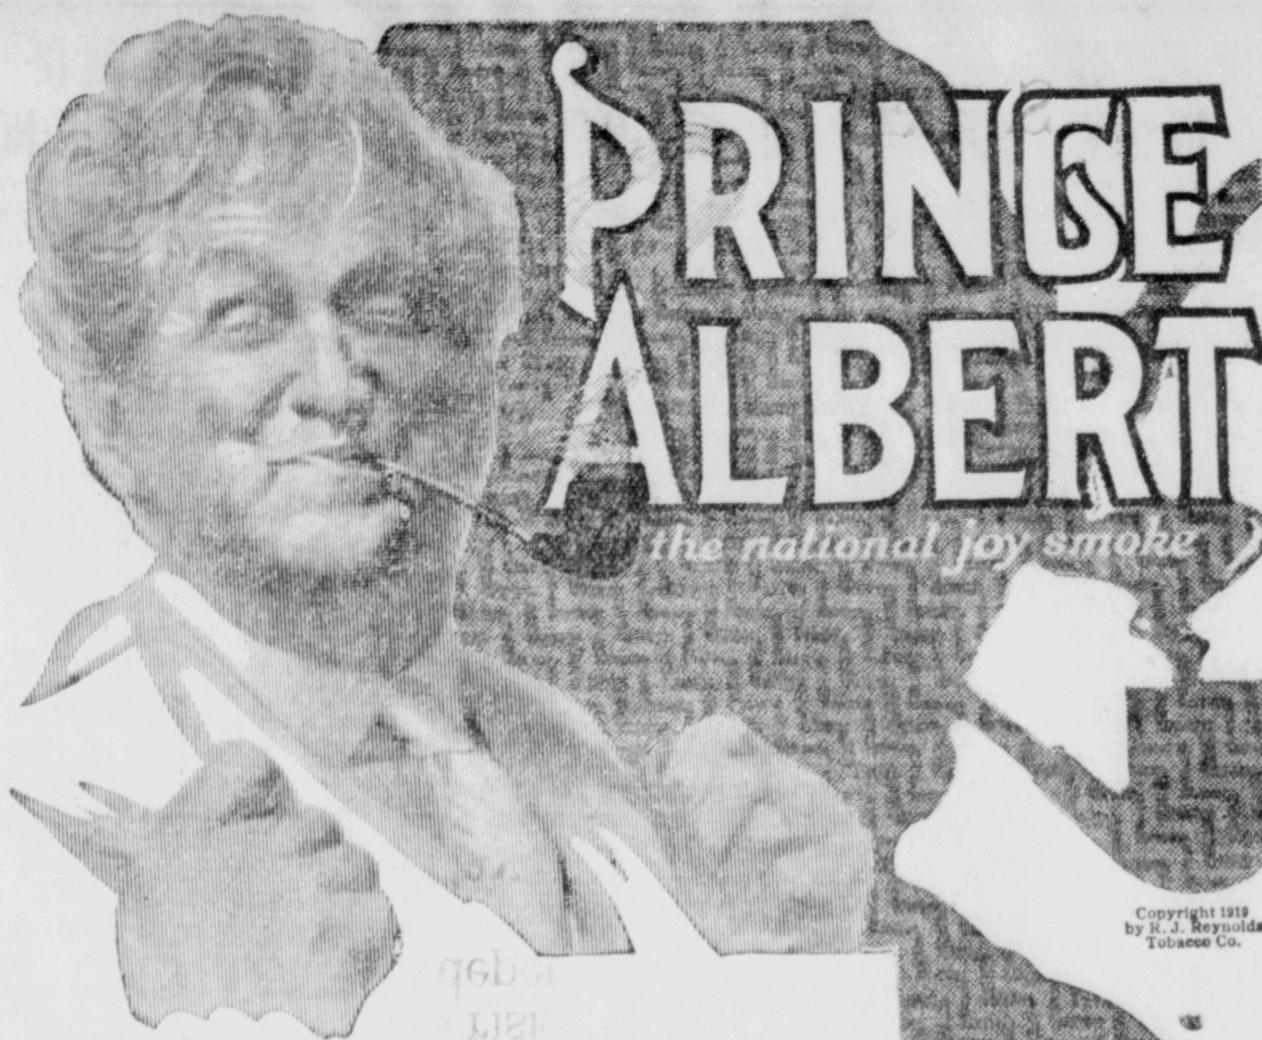

Arrangements were made this morning for the tag day which is to be promoted on Thursday for the benefit of high school athletics.

The first scrimmage of the gridiron was held yesterday, tho the workout was in no way strenuous. The men, the green at football, are making rapid strides and will show a bit of real form when pitted against their first enemy, probably a week from the coming Saturday. No definite dates have yet been scheduled.

FORTUNES OF WAR

High Military Rank Attained by Humble Civilians.

Sir Douglas Haig Tells of Many Instances That Came to His Notice During the Great War—Men That Failed.

An interview with Sir Douglas Haig, printed in the Manchester Guardian, contains some shocking instances of the romance and fortunes of war.

"Promotion," said the field marshal, "has been entirely by merit, and the highest appointments were open to the humblest, provided he had the necessary qualifications of character, skill and knowledge.

"Many instances could be quoted of men who, from civil or comparatively humble occupations, have risen to important commands.

"A schoolmaster, a lawyer, a taxicab driver and an ex-sergeant major have commanded brigades.

"One editor has commanded a division and another held successfully the position of senior staff officer to a regular division.

"The undercook of a Cambridge college, a clerk to the Metropolitan water board, an insurance clerk, an architect's assistant and a police inspector became efficient general staff officers.

"A mess sergeant, a railway signalman, a coalminer, a market gardener, an assistant secretary of a haberdashery company, a quartermaster sergeant and many private soldiers have risen to command battalions.

"Clerks have commanded batteries. "A schoolmaster, a collier, the son of a blacksmith, an iron molder, an instructor in tailoring, an assistant
